Divisions happen all the time. They seem to be part of our world experience. They happen in families. They happen in churches. They happen in nations. They even happen within political parties. Historically, there was a great division of the Christian tradition in 1054, the division between the Orthodox churches of the East and the Roman Catholic Churches of the West. Much was lost for each party, but especially for the churches in the West.

Paul had made a bold statement in his letter to the Colossians: "Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, visible and the invisible,..." (1:15-16). This is an affirmation of the Divine Presence in everyone and everything since the beginning of time. The Eastern church continued to affirm that Christ is everywhere, whereas the Western church began to limit the Divine Presence to the single body of Jesus.

Richard Rohr states that "discovering Christ as the transcendent within of every 'thing' in the universe can transform the way we perceive and the way we live in our everyday world." G.K. Chesterton wrote, "our religion is not the church we belong to, but the cosmos we live inside." The word "religion" literally means to "reconnect." This concept invites us to be inclusive, to be connected with everything and everyone. Let us in this New Year allow the Christ within to connect us with the "all of the universe."

Peace and blessings, Pastor David

Sermon Themes

January 4th – Communion Sunday – Covenant Sunday – The Mystery Unveiled: Ephesians 1:3-10; John 1:1-5,14-18

On the first Sunday of the year, we renew our covenant with God with the traditional “Covenant Prayer” written by John Wesley. The scriptures are powerful statements of God’s intention to gather all people to him, having been chosen before the foundation of the world. Paul emphasizes that this is a “plan for the fullness of time.” The beginning of John’s gospel also states that “from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.” These powerful and positive scriptures invite us into an inclusive and full life.

January 11th – First Sunday in Epiphany – A Declaration: Acts 10:34-43; Matthew 3:13-17

The writer of Acts places Peter on the stage with a brief message about the centrality of Christ and the inclusion of all “who fear God and practice righteousness.” He declares that “God shows no partiality.” The story in Matthew is about the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist, and the powerful declaration, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” What is the declaration God makes about us?

January 18th – Second Sunday in Epiphany: Jeremiah 29:4-9; Matthew 28:16-20

Rev. Steven Jenkins preaching, with the title: The World IN My Parish. Rev. Jenkins has a rich background in ministry in England and the United States, a guest speaker in many places on a variety of topics. He will focus on Jeremiah, who gives a very positive prophecy to the Israelites, who at this time are in exile in Babylon. Jeremiah encourages them to be prosperous. The Matthew passage includes the “Great Commission” that Jesus gave to his apostles before his ascension.

January 25th – Third Sunday in Epiphany: United Women in Faith Sunday

This special worship service will be conducted by the United Women in Faith of Laguna Country UMC. This active group of women focuses on missions throughout the world and has invited a special speaker for this Sunday. Young Mae Kim, part of the Program Advisory Group of the National United Women in Faith. She was born and raised in Seoul, Korea, worked at a TV-Radio Broadcasting Company in Seoul for ten years, and moved to Los Angeles with her family due to her husband’s job relocation, worked as a Teacher’s Assistant, there, and Literacy Instructor and Program Coordinator in Virginia. She is currently running a retail business.

What's Going On

FINANCIAL COMMITMENT

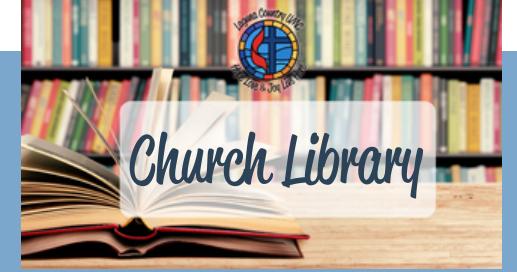

We have received a total of 40 pledges to support the work and ministry of LCUMC in 2026, with a total pledged of $121,392. Ten of these pledges, 25%, are from new participants in the church. Thanks to all who have made this commitment and to all who continue to give financially to the church without making a pledge. Your faithful and generous giving is making it possible to continue ministry here.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING (print the total when you have it)

CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY CELEBRATED

We experienced Christmas Eve in a new way this year. Laguna Country and Laguna Hills Korean United Methodist Churches joined together to celebrate the birth of the Christ Child. Each church brought special music, each pastor gave a short meditation, and we all sang Carols together in whatever language was most familiar to us. This is the beginning of a new relationship with the two congregations. Pastor Hakchoon Lim retired at the end of November and invited the congregation to go with him as he started a new church. It is not a United Methodist Church, but an independent entity. About two-thirds of the congregation left with him, and about one-third of the congregation stayed with the United Methodist connection. Their interim pastor, Rev. Yong Sam Park, and a number of their laity approached Pastor Atkins with the possibility of working together to support the ministry of Christ in this location. In the last few weeks, leaders of LHKUMC and LCUMC have met several times to discuss joint worship and shared financial responsibilities for our facilities. This is a new time in the life of both churches, and your prayers are requested for the pastors and participants in both congregations as we seek to be faithful to our calling and ministry.

Peace, Pastor David

Help Us Start Our Church Library!

We're excited to share that our church is starting a brand-new library! Our hope is to create a cozy little corner filled with books that encourage faith, inspire hope, and bring joy to readers of all ages. To get started, we'd love your help. If you have gently used books—Christian living, devotionals, Bible studies, children's stories, or even good, wholesome fiction—please consider donating them. Every book will help build a collection that our whole church family can enjoy. Donations can be dropped off in the church office during the week or placed in the library donation box in the foyer on Sundays. Thank you for helping us plant the seeds of a library that will bless our community for years to come!

What's Going On

Meet Our Staff

By: Pastor David —

Roger Gillette, Handy Man

Pastor: Tell me about where you came from and your family.

Roger: I was born in Asheville, N.C., and then was in Greenville, S.C., for a while, but most of my life I was in Maryland, next to the DC/Maryland line. I grew up on the streets. My mother was a single parent, and I never knew my father. I had two older brothers who were sent to live with their father, then to an uncle, and then to a home for boys. My brother, Larry, ran away from that home when he was 18, and my other brother, 16, ran away shortly after that. I just learned to adapt. Because of the negative authority around me, I never learned to respect authority. I found a way to escape life through alcohol and drugs. I was married for a time, then found my escape from alcohol and drugs through the courts. The judge took a personal interest in the young men who came through his court, and in 2001, I made a dramatic change when I was sent to rehab and then the "Oxford House," a sober living house, and stayed there for eight years. I met my closest friends there. I met my wife, Robin, while I was living there around 2009, and we were married in 2011. We lived in Illinois, and I managed an auto repair shop for about 10 years.

Pastor: What different jobs have you had?

Roger: I was always taking things apart, wanting to figure out what made it work, but wasn't interested in putting it back together. When I was 12, I installed an engine in a Ford Falcon, then worked at auto dealerships as a mechanic. My brother, Phillip, and I set up our own repair shop in Pensacola, FL. I wandered through a number of states and had a daughter while in Indiana. I have three grandchildren. As an auto mechanic, I learned about electrical, heating, and cooling. "If I know how it works, I can fix it." I used to build and sell computers. I installed tankless water heaters in Chicago.

What's Going On

Meet Our Staff

Of all the jobs I have had, I like this one the best. I feel like I am helping the church. With the building being so old and broken, anything you do makes a difference.

Pastor: How did you come to work for LCUMC?

Roger: I was doing work for Mike Daillak, and he asked me to take a look at the furnace at the church. I kept thinking about the problem and figured out it was the gas valve, which I replaced. Then the Trustees asked me to work part-time as the handyman. (Roger donates a lot of extra time to the church.)

Pastor: What do you do here?

Roger: Whatever is asked of me. General maintenance, although not restricted to that.

Pastor: What do you like about the job here?

Roger: I like the people. I also like the three-minute commute from home.

Pastor: What do you find challenging or frustrating?

Roger: Nothing really. People here are so mellow.

Pastor: What thought or word would you give to the church?

Roger: Don't let people walk on you. Stand up for the church. It's not about personalities; it is about the church. Also, the church needs security cameras.

(Additional information: Roger had an 18-hour surgery for a liver and kidney transplant on July 31st-August 1st, 2024. He said, "I didn't know I was that ill." The energy I have now is "insane." He was on the active waiting list for about a year. The donor was a 51-year-old male, and Roger was 64. No transplant is given after the age of 70.)

We are so blessed to have Ashleigh serving as our church administrator! She adores and loves each one of you, and she is always happy to lend a hand. To help her balance assisting the congregation while also tending to the many responsibilities of the office, her drop-in hours will now be:

Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

She is still in the office after 12:00 p.m., but those afternoons are set aside so she can focus on completing her administrative duties. If you need assistance after 12:00 p.m., she will gladly meet with you by appointment.

Thank you for honoring this schedule and for showing your support as she continues to serve with joy and dedication!

Carrying Our Blessings Forward

Yellow: Life in Christ; Green: Sisterhood; Orange: Action; Blue: Faith

Who are we? We're a sisterhood acting in faith to tackle the hard work of the world without hesitation.

The Mission: United Women in Faith seeks to connect and nurture women through Christian spiritual formation, leadership development, creative fellowship, and education so that they can inspire, influence, and impact local and global communities.

The Vision: Turning faith, hope, and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth around the world.

The Purpose: We are a community of women whose purpose is to know God; to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship, and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

As we welcome 2026 and leave 2025 behind, we invite you to reflect on your hopes and expectations for the coming year. The possibilities are exciting, and together as a unit, we can continue to inspire, influence, and impact others through our shared commitment and work.

The Laguna Country UWFaith Leadership Team will be meeting during the first week of January 2026 to plan our activities for the year. Your input is invaluable—please share with any Team member what you hope for and what you look forward to in 2026. Hearing from you is important as we shape programs that best serve our community and encourage active participation.

Please mark your calendars for our first general meeting of 2026, scheduled for Saturday morning, January 17th (time to be determined). This gathering will feature a Pledge Service and the installation of incoming officers. A flyer and reminder, including the time, will be sent out soon. The officers for 2026 are:

- Laddie Perez, President
- Teri Lancey, Secretary
- Tanya Yoneda, Treasurer
- Meg Estrada, Program Resource Coordinator
- Joy O'Connor, Spiritual Growth Coordinator
- Lulu Emery, Librarian

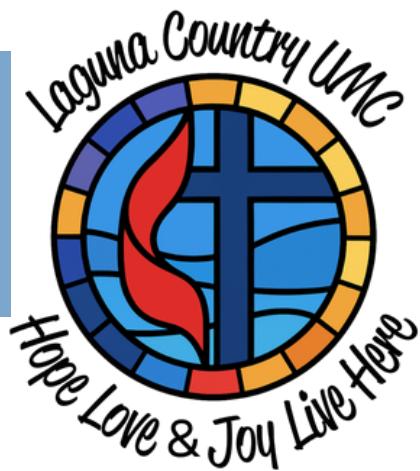

On Sunday, January 25th, we celebrate Women's Sunday. We are honored to welcome guest speaker Young Mae Kim, who attends Holliston-Dream UMC in Pasadena and currently serves as a member of the Program Advisory Group on Western Jurisdiction and National UW Faith.

Registration is still open for the UW Faith Assembly in Indianapolis, Indiana, taking place from May 15th-17th, 2026. Keynote speakers include Stacey Abrams and her mother, Rev. Carolyn Abrams. This Assembly, held every four years, brings together women committed to faith, empowerment, and making a difference. It is a memorable experience that continues to inspire those who attend (like me).

If you are able, please continue supporting the Orangewood Foundation by bringing essential items. The Missions Committee will be collecting donations throughout January, with delivery scheduled for February. Orangewood Foundation serves young people experiencing homelessness and those aging out of foster care. Requested items include shampoo, conditioner, toothbrushes, toothpaste, razors, shaving cream, deodorant, lotion, body wash or soap, and feminine hygiene products. For further details and for additional items to bring, please contact Meg Estrada.

Thank you for all your support and contributions. Laguna Country UW Faith is unstoppable! Laddie Perez, President
